1098-T Information

Beginning in 2014, Kennesaw State University will no longer issue 1098-T tax forms to students in the College of Continuing & Professional Education. This will include any classes that were paid for in 2013. The IRS does not require that KSU provide 1098T’s to non-degree students. Students may provide their accountant or tax preparer with registration receipts for tax purposes. Students may also be required to provide their tax preparer or accountant with Kennesaw State University’s tax ID number which is as follows: 58-0965786.

If you have any questions, please contact the Registration Office at 770-423-6765.
